CURRICULUM VITAE

PHILLIP NELSON

Personal Profile

Phillip Nelson is a passionate and motivated ICT student at Multimedia University of Kenya (MMU), with a strong interest in technology, problem-solving, and continuous learning. He is enthusiastic about developing his IT skills and applying them to solve everyday challenges.

Education

- Multimedia University of Kenya (MMU) — Currently pursuing Information and Communication Technology (ICT).
- Butula National School — Completed four years of high school education.

Skills and Interests

- Information Technology: Passionate about ICT, technology, and digital solutions.
- Automotive Enthusiast: Has a strong interest in cars, vehicle systems, and automotive maintenance.
- Basic Vehicle Diagnostics: Regularly assists people in his community by recommending possible vehicle repairs and maintenance solutions.
- Problem-Solving: Enjoys identifying problems and suggesting practical solutions.
- Communication and Teamwork: Willing to share knowledge and assist others.

Personal Statement

Phillip is a dedicated learner who combines his passion for ICT with his love for automobiles. He is committed to expanding his technical knowledge, gaining practical experience, and using his skills to make a positive contribution to his community.

Career Objective

To build a successful career in the ICT field by gaining practical experience, developing professional skills, and contributing to innovative technology solutions while continuing to explore his interest in the automotive industry.

EMAIL : nphillipe3800@gmail.com